

Nicole Plecas spent seventeen years in the hospitality industry working in restaurants and hotel management, including over seven years with Hyatt Corporation. For five of those years, she worked under the Chairman and CEO of Hyatt Development Corporation, the subsidiary responsible for new hotel development efforts. It was here that she was first exposed to large-scale commercial deals, and her passion for real estate began.

She has lived in Wicker Park for the past fourteen years and has witnessed its renaissance first-hand. After successfully navigating the Chicago Public Schools system during her quest to find a great local kindergarten for her son, she became familiar with many of the neighborhoods on the Near West, Near North and Northwest sides. She obtained her real estate broker's license with the intention of sharing this information with other families desiring to raise children in our fabulous city. Having grown up in Burr Ridge and attended high school in LaGrange, she also has extensive knowledge of the west and southwest suburbs of Chicago.

Prior to pursuing a career in real estate, Nicole worked as a local small business owner with office out of the West Loop and Pilsen, serving a broad portfolio of clients in the Chicagoland area. She graduated with a BS in Business Administration-Marketing from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. She spent a summer studying in Florence, Italy where she completed her Italian minor.

Nicole joined Miller Chicago Real Estate in 2015 as a Broker Assistant, and spent two years handling marketing and sales of the company's commercial and residential property portfolio. In her current role as Director of Marketing and Public Relations, she is responsible for promoting the Miller brand in its expansion throughout the Chicago Metro market. As a Broker, she continues to focus on sales and retail / office leasing, striving to apply her local market expertise in effort to continue attracting both established and up-and-coming businesses to the growing West Town community she calls home.
