

Activity Report

Miller Chicago closed 52 deals in the 2nd quarter across various asset classes. A sample of broker deal activity includes Ashley Donat, who leased a luxury condominium at The Legacy; Ken Worm, who represented a buyer in purchasing a 4-bedroom, 2-story home in Old Irving Park; and Andrea Miller, who sold a retail strip center in Joliet!

Miller Chicago DID DIVISION at the Do Division Festival in Wicker Park!

Our Festival Open House was a huge success! Team Miller and our guests had a fantastic time learning “fun facts” about Chicago neighborhoods and playing games for prizes, all in the name of giving back. For each game participant, Miller Chicago donated to the charity of the participant’s choice – PAWS Chicago or the Boys and Girls Club of Chicago! Click here to see how much fun we had! Click here for a list of causes Miller Chicago was humbled to support in the second quarter.

Chicago Real Estate Council Selected Andrea Miller as a Guest Speaker

Miller Chicago’s very own Andrea Miller was invited to be one of four panelists at CREC’s Successful Women in Commercial Real Estate event to discuss what today’s political landscape means for development tomorrow. Panel topics included the new ARO requirements, TIF funding, and property taxes. Click here for more details!
