

John Mattson came to Miller Chicago after a career on Wall Street working in mortgage-backed securities and fixed income / credit sales. After getting his real estate license, he joined the team as a broker. John graduated from Grainger School of Business at University of Wisconsin-Madison where he was a member of the golf team.